

To Miss Staward,
I have found lockdown hard because I can't see my friends and miss going to school. I have found remote learning easy to do sometimes but remote learning can be a challenging too as it's hard to concentrate. I have most enjoyed describing the made up planets and making up my own. I thought it was interesting. I have also enjoyed the Google meets because I keep in touch with everyone and it helps me start my lesson.

Daniel Matthews

